Il cookie ha una durata di circa un anno.	FUNZIONALE

c. Profiling Cookies

Third-Party Profiling Cookies

During navigation on this site, users may receive profiling cookies on their devices, installed and managed by third parties, to send advertising messages in line with the preferences expressed by the user during their online navigation. This occurs because, as mentioned above, the site may contain elements residing on servers different from the one hosting the visited site. When third parties set cookies while you are visiting this site, they obtain information regarding whether users have visited it. More information about the use of cookies can be found by accessing the link below to the third party's site. Denying consent to the use of third-party profiling cookies does not interfere with the ability to access the site.

Below, we list the names of the third-party cookies that may be installed by the latter through the site, their purpose, the name of the third party, and the link to the third party's site.

How to Disable Cookies?

By default, almost all web browsers are set to automatically accept cookies. However, it is possible to modify this default setting through the browser settings. Disabling/blocking cookies or deleting them may prevent optimal use of certain areas of the site, hinder the use of some services, and make navigation slower.

The configuration for managing cookies depends on the browser being used. Typically, cookie settings can be found in the "Preferences," "Tools," or "Options" menu.
